

NOBLE LIFE NEWS

FIRST HOMES BREAK GROUND

On 2 March, we're kicking off construction on three new homes, with more starting each week after that. It's incredibly exciting to see this buzz of activity on-site as our community begins to take shape.

We'll be personally contacting each resident in due course with a date and time for you to come and watch your concrete slab being poured. There's something special about standing there while the foundation of your new home is poured.

The Clubhouse civil works are now complete, and we expect construction to commence in March – another big step forward.

To all our new residents – thank you. Your belief in the Noble Life New Norfolk vision means everything to us. We truly cannot wait to welcome you home.
