NEW NORFOLK RESORT

Luxury Resort Living for Over 50s

Our Story

Noble Life New Norfolk is the newest over-50s lifestyle community created by the Noble family — a family with a proud history of building exceptional communities.

Since 1980, Keith and Elmona Noble have been dedicated to developing outstanding residential communities along Australia's east coast for more than four decades. Over that time, both the business and the broader industry have evolved — transitioning from traditional over-50s estates to vibrant, resort-style communities that attract a new generation of active, energised homeowners ready to embrace the next chapter of their lives.

While much has changed, our core values have remained constant. Since 1980, Noble Life has upheld a strong family philosophy centred on integrity, long-term commitment, and meaningful contribution. We are dedicated not only to enriching the lives of our homeowners and their families, but also to positively contributing to the wider communities in which we operate.

Today, Keith and Elmona's sons, Roger and Daniel, proudly lead Noble Life, continuing the family legacy and ensuring the vision and values that shaped the business remain at its heart.

The Noble Life Community

Noble Life New Norfolk is a vibrant, gated residential community where over-50s can enjoy five-star, resort-style amenities right on their doorstep.

Designed with vitality at its heart, the community attracts homeowners who are, on average, 10 to 20 years younger than those in traditional retirement villages — and distinctly active in both lifestyle and outlook. Many are devoted grandparents who delight in sharing special moments with their grandchildren, making the most of the abundant family-friendly spaces thoughtfully woven throughout the community.

Our homeowners come from all stages of life. Some continue to enjoy fulfilling careers, others are gradually transitioning from full-time work, and some have already embraced the freedom of retirement. Many have chosen to downsize from larger suburban homes into a modern, beautifully designed residence that requires minimal maintenance and a more manageable financial commitment — while still accommodating beloved pets. Others are seeking a long-awaited tree change and a stronger connection to nature.

The low-maintenance “lock-and-leave” lifestyle at Noble Life New Norfolk makes extended travel effortless. For those who prefer to stay closer to home, there is always a diverse calendar of activities, wellness programs and social gatherings to enjoy alongside fellow homeowners and the wider community.

For those who value quiet moments, there are countless peaceful corners to unwind, take in the breathtaking surroundings, enjoy a good book, or relax with a glass of wine by the fireplace.

What unites our homeowners is a shared sense of possibility. They are entering a chapter of life with greater freedom and time — time to explore new interests, discover new places, build meaningful friendships, stay active, and truly live well.

Your best chapter awaits at Noble Life New Norfolk Resort.

Enjoy vibrant, active living in the comfort of a secure, gated community. Socialise at the beautifully appointed 5-star Clubhouse, where an exceptional range of amenities awaits — thoughtfully curated for leisure, wellness and meaningful connection.
